Judgement Criteria:

Kubrickism (Senior) 15 Marks

- Script/Story (5 marks): - Probably the most important element of any film. Storyline is the heart of any film. You might've seen films with a lot action scenes and VFX, but lack of proper story makes it flop on box office. This is the only element which should be given the most attention.
- Acting (4 marks): - Performance of the actors. An actor can change the fate of film by his/her performance. We've seen films, which lacked many things, but the breathtaking performance of actors made it bring laurels.
- Cinematography (3 marks)- Professionalism in scenes shot is very important in any film. Also, the angle at which shot is taken tells a lot about the subject (character) in the film. For ex. The low angle shot is taken mostly when the character is shown to be dangerous or of high status. In the movie 'The Dark

Knight', many low angle shots are taken in order to portray 'Joker' as a dangerous character.

- Post Production (3 marks): - It involves Editing and Background score.

Note: -

Background music is one of the most crucial elements of any scene. So, more importance (in judgment) would be given to the background score of film.

Kubrick's (Junior) 15 Marks

- Script/Story (8 marks): - Probably the most important element of any film. Storyline is the heart of any film. You might've seen films with a lot action scenes and VFX, but lack of proper story makes it flop on box office. This is the only element which should be given the most attention

Sub-Criteria

- Concept (3 Marks)
- Plot (3 Marks)
- Dialogues (2 Marks)
- Acting (7 marks): - Performance of the actors. An actor can change the fate of film solely by his/her performance. We've seen films, which lacked many things, but the breathtaking performance of actors made it bring laurels.

Sub-Criteria

- Facial Expressions (3 marks)
- Voice Modulation (3 marks)
- Body Language (1 mark)

Important Note (If Family members are Participating):

- Even if family members are sharing the screen, only the name of participant will be taken into account.

- No marks will be deducted for the performance of family members. (considering them to be unaware and unskilled in this art)
- Only the Acting of STUDENTS will be taken into consideration.
